TAMILNADU HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS - 1 dated 30-08-2024 CMA No. 3582 of 2019 dated 30-08-2024	The issue in nutshell is that the assessee had wrongly availed CENAT Credit on capital goods, inputs, and input services for its Line-II Project (2008-2011). The core contention in this case revolves around the eligibility of CENAT Credit claimed by Ms. The Ramco Cements Ltd. on capital goods, components, and input services used for the erection, commissioning, and installation of its Line-II Project which is nothing but a Cement Plant, a turn-key project and admittedly not executable and do not qualify as a "Final product" as defined under Rule 2(b) of the Cusval Credit Rules, 2004. RAO/C was issued a SC No. 27.1/2014 demanding the Cusval credit to the tune of Rs.25,56,64,311/- on said ineligible items / input services availed by them during the period from November 2007 to April, 2011. The demand was confirmed on affidavitation by the Commissioner. On further appeal preferred by the assessee the same was quashed. Hon'ble Madras HC on 30.8.2024 in CMA No. 3582/2019 threw down the appeal of the dept. Hence the dept is before the Hon'ble SC with this appeal.	2555.7	2555.7	---	17.02.2025	LIST ON 09.04.2025 ALONG WITH SLP (C) NO.3323/2015

(hereinafter referred to as 'the appellants') imported certain goods under the Customs Act, 1962, and their sister concerns. The case was referred to the Chennai SVB, and on 5th October 2009, the Deputy Commissioner of Customs issued Order No. 97/09, determining that the entities (importer & exporter) were related under Customs Valuation Rules, 2007. The declared invoice values were accepted as transaction value and a periodical review was to be undertaken after 3 years. In 2012, the order was reviewed, and on 27th August 2013, a new order (No. 21/2013/2013) was passed. It stated that the entities were still related and rejected the declared values and ruled that additional payments for brand licensing, technical know-how, and royalties were to be added to the invoice value. This order was valid for three years, until 28th August 2016. The importer appealed against this order in February 2014, but the appeal was dismissed by the Commissioner (Appeals) in June 2014. The importer then approached the Madras High Court, which directed that the appeal be heard. However, the Department appealed against the High Court's decision, and in February 2018, the High Court ruled in favor of the Department, stating that the Appellate Authority could not consider delays beyond the prescribed period under the Customs Act. UNION OF INDIA	TAMIL NADU High Court of Judicature at Madras WA-826-2020 16-05-2024	The Party filed WP Nos. 2430 and 27452 of 2019 challenging the debiting of SWS from their duty credit scrips. The petitioner argued that Notifications 24/2015 and 12/2015 exempted imported goods from customs duties when using MISHSIS scrips, thus SWS shouldn't be debited. They claimed that since customs duties were exempted, SWS, calculated as a percentage of customs duties, should also be zero. The respondents argued that MISHSIS schemes waive customs duties, not exempt them; therefore, SWS, as an additional customs duty, is debitable. The court examined Notifications 24/2015 and 12/2015, concluding that they exempted payment of customs duties in cash, not the duty itself. The court considered the Supreme Court's decision in Future Industries v. Union of India, determining that SWS is an independent levy, not simply an additional customs duty. The court ruled that the respondents were not empowered to debit SWS from the scrips and ordered the SWS amounts to be re-credited, provided the petitioner pays the SWS separately. Subsequently, the Court held that the petitioner is liable to pay the SWS but not by debiting it from the scrips. The respondents must re-credit the debited SWS amounts after the petitioner pays the SWS separately within a specified time. The Party appealed against the Hon'ble HC Order vide W.A. Nos. 838 and 831 of 2020 which was ultimately dismissed, upholding the lower court's decision. Aggrieved by the Order of the Hon'ble HC, the Petitioner in W.A. Nos. 838 and 831 of 2020 filed the present appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court.	4946	NA	NA	02.01.2025	LEAVE GRANTED

However, the Customs Department reclassified it under CTH 9033 9000, removing the exemption and demanding differential duty of 52.52 Lacs for April 2013. The Commissioner of Appeals upheld the reclassification. The appellant appealed to the Hon'ble HC CESTAT which confirmed the reclassification on 14.08.2024, citing Sec 20a of Chapter 98. The Tribunal ruled that the product was a multi-compatible accessory for various medical imaging devices, not suitable for use with just one machine. Thus, it classified the product as a part under Tariff Item 9033. The appellant argues that the product is a complete apparatus, not a part or accessory, and disputes the Tribunal's application of the tariff rates. The appellant has filed a writ petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court seeking a writ of certiorari to quash the order of the Hon'ble CESTAT dated 14.08.2024.
