The Commissioner (Appeals) had wrongly remanded the matter to examine the refund under the SEZ Notification No. 12/2003-SEZ. The appellant argued that the service tax was not leviable on ocean freight, as held by the Gujarat High Court in S.A.L. Sree Limited. The Tribunal held that since the levy on ocean freight was found unassailable by the jurisdictional High Court, the service was non-assailable, and the refund should be processed on this basis, without requiring recourse to the SEZ Notification. Consequently, the Tribunal allowed the appeal, granting the full refund.	NA	NA	25.09.2025	ADJOINED. LIST ON 16.10.2025

TAMIL NADU CUSTOMS EXCISE AND SERVICE TAX APPELLATE TRIBUNAL, South Zonal Bench, Chennai CA-4126-2023 12-06-2023	Ms. Anarond Limited has imported a product comprising various items, the item declared as 'Adhesive, Power Band AT' was classified under CTB 25041000. The subject item was assessed with indication of Counteracting Duty (CD) based on the Retail Sale Price (RSP) printed on the product packages, instead of considering the transaction value declared in the import documents. The levy was made by invoking the provisions under Section 4A of the Central Excise Act, 1944 read with Section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 and Notification No. 07/2016 (FNVT) dated 24.12.2016 issued thereunder. The Appellant contends that its imported product 'Adhesive Power Band AT' classified specifically under tariff heading 25041000 is outside the purview of the aforesaid Notification No. 49/2008. Hence CVD should have been levied on the normal transaction value rather than on the Retail Sale Price referred by permissible abatement under Section 4A deeming provisions invoked by the department. Aggrieved by the assessment on RSP basis, the Appellant preferred an appeal before the I.A. Commissioner (Appeals). However, the I.A. Commissioner (Appeals) rejected the appeal. Further the party filed an appeal before CESTAT, Bangalore and allowed. Dept. filed appeal before HC and set aside the CESTAT order, party filed appeal before Apex Court. GUJARAT HIGH COURT OF GUJARAT AT AHMEDABAD SCA-139/2021 06-05-2022	Mr. Munajal Mansuribhai Bhatt entered a September 2009 agreement with Navara Organizers & Developers Pvt. Ltd. (respondent No.4) to purchase a 1.821 sqm plot in Ahmedabad, including boutique construction, with separate payments for land and construction. The petitioner agreed to pay all taxes, assuming GST applied only to construction services. However, the respondent invoked Notification No. 11/2017-Central Tax (Rate), deeming 1/2nd of the total consideration as land value and levying 18% GST (1% GST + 17% SCSJ) on the remaining 2/2nd, covering both land and construction. This interpretation led the respondent to issue a tax invoice exceeding the petitioner's initial liability calculation. Disputing the inclusion of land rate in taxable value, the petitioner challenged the notification's validity and computation method through a Special Civil Application (SCA), arguing improper exclusion of land value.	0	05-12-2023	LEAVE GRANTED
2489	CGST AHMEDABAD	AHMEDABAD SOUTH	D	E	3376/2022	2022	SLP (C) NO.23187/2022	UNION OF INDIA	DIPESH ANIL KUMAR NAIK	GUJARAT HIGH COURT OF GUJARAT AT AHMEDABAD SCA-49/2022 06-05-2022	Mr. Dipesh Anil Kumar Naik purchased a plot in Navsar after dividing it and constructing mandatory amenities (drainage, water lines, etc.) as per local authority requirements, without transferring ownership or recovering costs for these amenities from buyers. The petitioner sought clarity from the Authority for Advance Ruling (AAR) on whether GST applied under Schedule III of the CGST Act, but the AAR and Appellate Authority (AAAR) ruled that developing plots with amenities constituted "construction services," making the transactions taxable. Challenging this, they filed a Special Civil Application (SCA) in the Gujarat High Court, which tagged their case with a similar matter (Munajal Mansuribhai Bhatt's SCA No.139/2021) and issued a common judgment on 06.05.2022, dismissing their claim and upholding GST applicability, treating the land case as precedent. The court held that mandatory infrastructure development aligned the activity with taxable construction services under GST laws.	0	05-12-2023	LEAVE GRANTED

High Court Lucknow Bench order dated 30.05.2025 J.C. Writ No. 71 of 2025	On the basis of adverse ruling from C.A.No. 86 under Petition Pet. Ltd placed their orders to an Indian company for supply of "reated areas mats", which is cleared by the customs authorities of India under IES 2009 19.120 and imported under Bill of Entry date 06.11.2024, at H.D.Park, Kanpur. The department for determination of true nature and character of areas mats drew samples of the imported commodity and sent for testing to the laboratory, Central Revenue Control Laboratory (CRCL), New Delhi, submitted a report dated 16.12.2024 finding that the moisture content was "0.99% and the commodity was "dry areas mats" and not "reated areas mats", which was not for human consumption. Aggrieved by the stand of the department, the importer filed Writ Pet No.71 of 2025 before High Court requesting to quash the seizure by the department and to release the imported goods. Hon'ble High court vide order dated 30.05.2025 ordered that since, the "reated areas mats" had been imported six months ago, the direction for release, is subject to the condition that the importer provides for treatment of the reated areas mats by "Gamma Irradiation process", wherein the mould and insect's in mats can be sterilized/ treated as per the proposition of treatment laid down by the Bhabha Atomic research Centre, Trombay, Mumbai, in the scheme, submission of the authentic certificate from the Hon'ble High Court order.
